THE BENEFICE OF ST BENEDICT

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

When does your 'New Year' begin?

Do you party on December 31st, count down the seconds to January 1st and then enjoy a firework party to see the New Year in?

Do you have a tax form to fill in because then your 'new year' starts on April 5th?

Right now, children are getting ready for the start of term, summer's over, back to school, we're off again, another 'new year'.

We all have different ways of doing things, measuring out the passing of time, of marking birthdays and other significant occasions in our lives.

Churches of all denominations around us will be marking 'Harvest Festival' with special services and harvest suppers or harvest lunches during this month of September, some will even gather to celebrate 'All is safely gathered in' during October!

Traditionally harvest was about bringing in grain, cutting, gathering, threshing, storing in barns and the building of haystacks. All that has gone now but for our farmers harvest has changed, it's not just grain to be harvested, when the combines have finished in the fields there are the potatoes to be lifted and then comes the beet harvest. While all this is going on fields will be ploughed, winter wheat will be sown, and fresh green shoots will appear in fields even as the business of growing and harvesting continues.

Life goes on, we can't stop it but each of us has our own way of marking the passing of time, the passing of the years.

Our way of marking the passing of time is so very different to God's way. In The Old Testament, in Psalm 90 the writer talks about God's way of seeing things: "A thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past...."

Puts us in our place.

Gives me something to think about and reminds me to be a little more patient when I find myself behind a tractor and trailer of grain, potatoes or beet. To be grateful for the things we take for granted every day, bread on the table, chips with my fish, sugar on my porridge and clean water to drink.

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

Neville Khambatta

Introduction by our new Rector

Hello Friends in the Benefice of St Benedict!

My name is the Revd Ben Bradshaw, and I am delighted to have been selected to become your new Rector.

I have been in ministry since I completed my studies in 2012 and served my curacy in North Devon, which is where I am originally from. Following my curacy, I have held a couple of different posts including serving as chaplain to the Bishop of Sodor and Man on the Isle of Man. Since 2020 I have ministered at Walsingham in North Norfolk.

I am married to Danielle who is an optician, and we have two children: Jorja who is 12 and Bethany who is 5.

As a family we enjoy going for days out and exploring all the wonderful sights and attractions that Norfolk has to offer. I am a keen football fan, however, these days I watch a lot more games instead of playing in them. I am a supporter of Bolton Wanderers but please do not hold that against me!

I am really looking forward to meeting each and every one of you and to serving the communities within the benefice to the very best of my ability.

We look forward to joining you this Autumn.

God bless,

Ben Bradshaw

The NIB team would like pass on the congratulations of all our residents to the young people of the villages for all their amazing GCSE, A-level and any other exam results and other achievements. We wish all of you the very best in your chosen future studies and careers.

Gardening Club

Dahlias have made a comeback and are once again in fashion! They have been grown in Europe for 200 years but lost their popularity some time ago. They were regarded as too big, bright and blousy - and a home for earwigs.

Now they come in all shapes and sizes, and every colour (except for blue, but the breeders are probably working on that). A valuable flower in the late summer border as the growing season slows down.

So lots to choose from for the two classes for dahlias at our Autumn Table Top Show at our September meeting. There are also classes for shrubs, fruit and vegetables. Entry is for members only. Guests are always welcome at our meetings, there is a £3 charge.

A change of speaker for our Monday 18th September meeting, with a talk on Bats.

White House Stores

One of our volunteers suggested we show you this Google review from a few weeks ago:

"This was a fabulous find. Beautifully presented, well stocked for every possible need and kindly staffed and served.

The WI window display was inspiring.

The fresh bread, well stocked freezers, fresh veg and salad, cosmetic and household items provided us holiday makers with a great variety.

Care had been taken to not overprice items and this was clear and set this store above many community and convenience stores.

If I was a local, I would volunteer here happily and with pride.

Thank you to the staff and volunteers. You are doing a really wonderful job."

It's such a boost to us to read reviews like this when our volunteers, staff and committee put so much into keeping the shop going. If you love your shop, please leave us a Google review! If you'd like to get involved, do contact us.

Knit & Stitch

Last month on 15th August it was Granny Square Day! No, it's not a day for unfashionable grannies! A granny square is one of the simplest crochet patterns you can learn and can be used to create almost any garment or shape. This is the first crochet I learned when my mum taught me many years ago and I much preferred it to knitting. Once mastered, it grows quickly and is easily corrected if you make a mistake. Crochet and in particular granny squares are having a renaissance having recently been featured on the The Sewing Bee when the contestants had to make a garment out of crochet blankets! Currently I am making a 'Hexagon Cardigan' based on a Granny Square! Granny squares can also be circular or triangular. Confused? If you would like to find out more or learn how to crochet, why not come along and see us. 'You Tube' is a great resource to help learn crochet but it's not the same as having someone to show you how!

We meet regularly in the Dolly Newcombe Room at the New Victory Hall on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month from 7-9pm, this month it will be 13th and 27th September.

Neatishead, Irstead and Barton Turf Community Heritage Group

Our next meeting on Wednesday 20th September at Neatishead School, 7.30pm, will be a film and presentation by Ruth Tolland of the WISE Archive about the importance of oral histories. The WISE Archive is an oral history group who record, transcribe and edit working-life stories of people across Norfolk. Their most recent publication "Water Mills and Marshes, Life and Work on the Broads 1920-2020" contains real-life stories and memories of over 100 people which may otherwise have been lost and include the late John Horner (Neatishead) and Alan Cox (Irstead) <https://wisearchive.co.uk/>. There will also be an opportunity to hear some recordings of members of our own community reminiscing about past events and characters. All welcome. Entry £3, NIBCHG Friends - free.

The group is celebrating its 10th Anniversary this year, so please make a note in your diaries of a trail across our four village churches from Friday 13th - Saturday 15th October. Each church will feature a different display and exhibition about our projects and events during the last ten years. The weekend will culminate on the Sunday evening with an evening event with food, photographs and film at the New Victory Hall. More details about the celebration will be available in next month's NIB.

Wherry Yacht Charter

Bishop Travels By Wherry To Isolated Broads Location For Annual Thanksgiving Service

A wherry operated by the Wherry Yacht Charter Charitable Trust sailed The Bishop of Norwich to the ruins of isolated St Benet's Abbey for an annual open-air service which is a highlight of church life on the Broads.

The abbey, on the banks of the River Bure, near Ludham, was founded by King Canute in 1019 - and was the only one in the country to survive Henry VIII's Dissolution of the Monasteries.

The Rt Revd Graham Usher and his party boarded wherry yacht Norada at South Walsham Staithe for the voyage out of the Broad and along the River Bure to its confluence with the River Ant where the abbey is located.

Local people and holidaymakers had gathered there to take part in the service which is organised by the Community of St Benet's.

Wherry Yacht Charter – the charity that restores, maintains and operates five of the remaining eight wherries in the world – has been sailing the Bishop of Norwich to the service since the mid-1990s and since then the person in the role has been its patron.

The sailing to the service is one of many that are operated by Wherry Yacht Charter throughout the summer. Places are still available on the trips between now and the end of September. To find out more or make a booking, please log on to: www.wherryyachtcharter.org.

Horning Hub - Connecting the Community!

Covid 19 and the ensuing economic crisis has been a difficult time for all. It became apparent that isolation and possibly financial stress and bereavement too could be just as great in a small village as it could a town or a city. Could a close-knit community help alleviate this? Yes, it could! It's called The Horning Hub!

The Hub is already helping the community support one another and encouraging people to become involved in village life by providing a warm and safe meeting place (in the form of the Cosy Café), fund raising and putting on and facilitating courses and events.

The Hub brought organisations together to celebrate a weekend of events for the Coronation of King Charles III. A community picnic on the green with music and a flotilla of 38 decorated boats from Horning Sailing Club was just one of the events that made it a weekend to remember.

Businesses, restaurants, cafes and pubs play a large part in keeping a village thriving and viable and it is hoped that the following events will encourage everyone to come along and enjoy what our lovely village has to offer. Don't forget to look out for our famous 'Book Stall on the Wall' in Lower Street! All proceeds from the book sales go to charity, local and further afield. An astonishing £4,000 was raised for Ukraine!

Horning Yard Sale Trail Saturday 2nd September

9am to 1.30pm. Have fun finding something you didn't know you needed until you saw it! Maps for the trail will be available from Monday 21st August from the Post Office, Lower Street, Horning and from the Village Hall on the day. Free Parking available on the day at the Village Hall Car Park.

Wildlife Notes

September is a month when birds are quietly moving and dispersing. This movement starts with wading birds in late July and you can often find odd waders in locations where you don't normally see them. Even so I was a little surprised on the 14th August when I was scanning over Barton Broad to find a Turnstone, or Ruddy

Turnstone – Jon Kelf

Turnstone as we are supposed to call them now, sitting on one of the yellow floats near the boardwalk platform. You may have seen them on rocks and sea walls around the coast, even when eating fish and chips on Walcott sea front but not usually around the Broads.

Whilst the twitchers would not get excited by a Turnstone they were flocking to Norfolk when a Black-Winged Kite was found at Hickling on the 17th July as it was only the second record for the UK following one in Wales in May. This species is found in Portugal and has been spreading across France towards Britain in recent years although its main population is in Africa. It is much smaller than our resident kites and is only about Kestrel sized and like the Kestrel is fond of hovering in open countryside. It is mostly white and grey coloured with black markings on its upper wings (which lead to its former name of Black-Shouldered Kite) and has bright yellow feet and a stunning red eye. Sadly, the bird did not hang around in Norfolk for long and after being seen at Horsey the next day it flew off to Suffolk and then Essex.

A couple of years ago I wrote about Silver-Washed Fritillary butterflies, previously known as the "Greater Silver-streak Fritillary" following a sighting of them at Alderfen by Jon Kelf. Since then they have been steadily increasing in Norfolk and last year I was sent photos of one in a Neatishead garden. This year there have been more sightings and at last I have seen and photographed one in my garden, a female which arrived on the 7th August. They are the largest British species of fritillary and mostly orange in colour with black markings on both the upper, fore and hind wings but are named due to the colour of the underside of the hind wing, a delicate mixture of light green and silver streaks. The females will lay their eggs singly on the bark of trees in woodland in shady clearings where there are violets growing in close proximity. The caterpillars will hatch after about a fortnight, eat the eggshell and then spin a cocoon in which to hibernate for the winter. In spring they descend to the ground and search for violets on which they feed, leaving curved bite marks on the sides of leaves. In early June the caterpillar pupates, disguised as a dead leaf, and then hatches two or three weeks later so the adults are on the wing in July and August.

Enjoy the last butterflies and dragonflies of the summer.

Weather

Very wet July followed by a drier start to August

July's monthly total was 100.4mms/3.95in which is 182% of average, so a very unsettled month. Notably, rain was recorded on 11 consecutive days from the 17th to the 27th and the Met Office confirmed it was the wettest July for 8 years across the county.

So far in August the total recorded to date (up to 19th) is 51.6mms/2.03in which is 79% of average. The highest daily total to date is 23.6mms/0.93in that fell during the early hours of the 19th. This was a trough moving across the area courtesy of Storm Betty centred over Eire.

Temperatures have been above average despite a cool start and the warmest day so far was on the 11th when 28.2°C was recorded.

The lowest overnight temperature to date is 8.6°C on the 6th/7th.
